DESCRIPTION

This delightful home enjoys a peaceful setting on the outskirts of Gata de Gorgos, just a short distance from the town centre. Set on a generous plot, it boasts beautiful open views of the Montgo mountain and the natural reserve behind the village an idyllic backdrop for those seeking tranquillity, privacy, and a close connection to nature. The property has been thoughtfully extended and partially renovated, carefully preserving its original character. A standout feature is the spacious living room, where traditional dry-stone walls have been maintained, adding warmth, authenticity, and charm. The roof has been completely renewed and elevated to an impressive height of 9 metres, creating exciting potential for an attic or additional living space. The home currently offers two cosy bedrooms, a versatile indoor area, ... (enquire for further details)
